Today, we are reminded that Jesus identified himself with our poorest brothers and sisters. The Catholic Relief Services Collection serves Jesus in the victims of human trafficking, in those who suffer from unjust laws, and in those who need pastoral care and humanitarian assistance across the globe. Through your support with today's Collection, you help Jesus in disguise. Please be generous.

Ashes to Easter 2015:

-We are blessed by the gracious gift of one man, Jesus Christ, who transformed human history with his infinite love. Through his Spirit, his grace has been poured into our hearts. With an open heart, share your blessings. Put something in your Ashes to Easter box each day and we will together substantially help bring hope to the struggling missions. Please pray for the missions. If you did not get a Lent box, please pick one up after Mass today. Return it on Easter.

Franklin Food Pantry:

-St. Francis will be manning the Franklin Food Pantry on March 21. Please place non-perishable food items in basket in the church narthex.

Gospel Meditation:

-In the first reading today, Chronicles reminds us of what happened to the Israelites when they ignored the prophets. In the Gospel Jesus tells Nicodemus that God sent his son not to condemn the world, but to save it. We know that the message of the prophets was about right relationships: living in a way that protects the poor and vulnerable. We know that the message of Jesus at the end of John's Gospel is also about relationships. We who are disciples of Jesus caught up in God's love and are called to live that love with all. Is our love growing this Lent? How are we showing God's love, particularly for the poor and vulnerable?
