Pathway to Heaven Booklet:

A 2nd Pathway to Heaven Booklet has been completed. This booklet is similar to the binder format that you received previously but includes more information about our Catholic faith. This companion booklet format makes it easy to take with you. Every registered family in the parish will take one home. You will find the books in the narthex with your family's name on the cover at the bottom right corner of the book. Please sign your name on the "picked up" sheet. Remember that your home is the "Domestic Church", please study it and share your faith with your children, family and loved ones.

World Mission Sunday:

All parishes in the Diocese of Austin are asked to take up a special collection next weekend, Oct. 21 and 22. This collection on the next-to-last Sunday in October is a unique, global effort for the entire Church to provide for the building up of over one thousand local churches in Asia and Africa, the Pacific Islands, and parts of Latin America and Europe. Through the work of these churches, and their witness to Christ, the poor receive practical help and experience God's love and mercy, His hope and peace. Please be generous.

First class relic comes to St. Anthony in Bryan:

A first-class relic of St. Anthony of Padua will come to St. Anthony Parish in Bryan on Oct. 18. This relic, a small piece of the flesh of St. Anthony, will stay at the parish permanently for public veneration. Bishop Joe Vásquez will place the relic for public veneration during Mass at 6 p.m. on Oct. 18. A candle-light procession throughout the parish grounds will follow the Mass. The church will be open for veneration Oct. 19-31 from 8 a.m. to 5 p.m. For more details about the relic and veneration, visit www.saintanthonys.org/st-anthony-of-padua-relic.
